

62nd Annual

Mississippi Cattlemen's Association Convention

February 12 & 13, 2010 • Mississippi Trade Mart, Jackson, MS

Cattle Handling

Join us on Friday morning for a Cattle Handling Demo. It offers a unique approach to daily livestock work. Learn more about Smooth Stockmanship that can improved gathering, penning, chute work & hauling. Also reduce stress & increase performance in your herd. The program will be presented by Curt Pate, Effective Stockmanship instructor and livestock handling advisor, renowned horseman, former auctioneer, life long rancher.

As an added bonus there will be a Colt Starting Workshop held on Friday afternoon for attendees who are interested.

Taste Of Beef

An evening of food and entertainment open to all friends of MCA. Area restaurants will provide a serving of their best beef specialty to each attendee. An eclectic sampling of Italian, American, and Mexican dishes will be presented in a social setting from some of Jackson's best restaurants.

A live auction will follow the tasting and refreshments. Items for the auction include the Cattle Trails art print, MCA's 2009 Gun of the Year, fine art, signed sports memorabilia, and other items for your home and farm.

County Steak Cooking Contest

Barbeques will light up at the 2010 Dixie National Farm Expo, as county cattlemen's associations will face off to see who is the best in the state. Teams will consist of four members and will be judged based on taste and presentation.

The Showmanship Champion team will receive a plaque and individual prizes. The Grilling Champion team will receive a plaque and individual prizes. Points will be totaled to determine the 2010 Grand Champion Steak Cooking Team.

The Steak Cooking Contest will be judged on Saturday at 3:30 p.m.

President's Banquet

In addition to presenting some of MCA's most coveted awards the gavel will be passed to the newly elected MCA president. With closing remarks from 2009 MCA President Ronnie Herrington. Also during the banquet outstanding county cattlemen's associations will be recognized.
